Agenda Item: Officials' Reports

Assessor Krey announced that Faris (Sam) Dababneh from her department, has been nominated by a Niles resident for the Niles Night of the Roses – Public Service Award of Excellence. She asked everybody to support and help Sam receive this prestigious award, and vote for him by April 9th.

Highway Commissioner Beauvais stated he already voted for Sam. He pointed out that Sam is deserving the award because he has done a tremendous job for the Township. Highway Commissioner Beauvais reported that the weather is starting to get nicer and they are just getting up for their projects. He discussed some of them. He stated that the Highway Department and the Village of Niles are working on the IG to improve the drainage issue on Greenwood.

Clerk Gialamas reminded everybody that the Annual Town Meeting (ATM) will be on April 8th. The ATM Moderator is going to be Rene Mandin, and Trustee Maher again will serve as a parliamentarian. He stated that his office has been very busy with passports, and part of the reason is the President's executive order related to gender changes.

Trustee Malik thanked the Elected Officials for attending the ICCD.

Trustee Maher commented that because the future is uncertain after the April 1st Election, he wanted everyone to know that it has been his privilege to work as a trustee for the last four years.

Trustee Jones reported that she attended St. Patrick's Luncheon along with Clerk Gialamas and Assessor Krey, and attended Happy Holli sponsored by Trustee Malik. They were terrific events with great music, food, and company. Trustee Jones said that she also had the privilege of attending an ICCD Sunday dinner at the mosque. Trustee Jones invited everybody to the next Neighborhood Watch on April 2nd, at 7:00 pm. Trustee Maher will chair the meeting.
